Chumash Inter-Tribal Pow-Wow

Honor Native American traditions and culture with a fun day for the entire family at the 16th annual pow-wow. Although pow-wows are not traditionally Chumash, other Native American tribes have gathered for decades to dance, sing, socialize and heal. The Chumash Inter-Tribal Pow-Wow provides our local band with an annual opportunity to share and celebrate its culture through a variety of traditional foods, drumming and dance performances and beautiful handmade native crafts. Free. October 1-2, 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Live Oak Campground, 4600 Hwy 154.
